

The change in foot separation is five times the change in radius.